

Discussion of War Correspondent Jack Shelley, WWII Journalist for WHO Radio and WHO-TV Presented by Mr. Jay Olson

Jack Shelley, WWII Journalist and ISU Professor

“Where Did Jack Go?” Jack Shelley of WHO Radio was an accredited War Correspondent with the First Army in Belgium just as the Battle of the Bulge began on December 16, 1944. He reported on the battle but could not reveal his location to listeners. Jay Olson has researched his reports and unit journals to determine which units he visited and where he traveled in December 1944 and January 1945.
